Welcome to the Summer Safari for WILD THINGS!

Sponsored by: Calvert County Department of Economic Development

In honor of our fabulous summer exhibit of animal art, WILD THINGS, Annmarie Garden is pleased to present the Summer Safari for WILD THINGS. Twenty safari sites have been chosen from around Calvert County, Maryland. Your challenge is to visit the sites and accrue points by correctly answering animal-related questions. Based on the number of points you accrue, you will earn a different safari souvenir. Intrepid EXPLORERS who accumulate at least 23 points will be entered into a Grand Prize drawing! Everyone going on safari is invited to visit Annmarie Garden to have their photo (costumes encouraged!) added to the Summer Safari website. Don't miss this marvelous opportunity to become famous across southern Maryland for your adventuresome spirit!

Did you know? The word "safari" is Swahili for "long journey." Learn more at <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Safari>.

SPECIAL NOTES:

- You must use the official PASSPORT to record your animal answers.
- You pick which safari sites you want to visit, but to earn souvenirs Annmarie Garden must be one of the sites.
- Please observe the individual site rules and hours of operation.
- At some sites you may be required to verify your visit.
- You can go on safari as an individual or family. If participating as a family, please list all family members on the PASSPORT. Everyone going on safari is encouraged to give themselves an outrageous name and have their photo taken (in costume) for the website!
- Based on the number of points you accrue, you will be eligible for different safari souvenirs. If you accumulate at least 23 points, you will be entered into a Grand Prize drawing!
- You must turn in your PASSPORT to Annmarie Garden IN PERSON.
- Deadline to turn in your completed PASSPORT is August 30, 2009.
- PASSPORTS sent by email, fax, or snail mail will not be accepted.
